Iran Steps Up Malign Activities

Iran's Supreme Leader has expressed his contempt for America by awarding "medals of conquest" to naval commanders who illegally detained 10 U.S. sailors last month. On the heels of Implementation Day, and in the run-up to Iran's Majlis elections, Iran's malign activity continues—overflying U.S. naval vessels in the Persian Gulf, reiterating its denial of the Holocaust, and accelerating its illicit ballistic missile program. Tehran's leaders are cementing their stronghold on Iranian society as they continue their appalling human rights abuses. Also, the regime has quashed any hopes for positive change in this month's elections by disqualifying most pragmatic candidates. America must firmly oppose Tehran's destabilizing activities in the Middle East in order to support U.S. allies and thwart Iranian ambitions.
