

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
November 3, 2010

Contact: Darren Mackoff
press@aipac.org

AIPAC STATEMENT ON THE 2010 MIDTERM ELECTION RESULTS

Washington D.C.—The American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC) congratulates all the members of the upcoming 112th Congress on their election victories. AIPAC looks forward to continuing to work with the leadership and members of both parties in both houses of Congress for a strong U.S.-Israel relationship.

Congressional support for the U.S.-Israel relationship has always been and will remain overwhelmingly bipartisan with the strong support of both Democrats and Republicans. It is that unwavering support that ensures the alliance between the United States and Israel will continue to flourish.

It is abundantly clear that the 112th Congress will continue America's long tradition of staunch support for a strong, safe and secure Israel and an abiding friendship between the United States and our most reliable ally in the Middle East.

Many of the strongest friends and supporters of the U.S.-Israel relationship were reelected on Tuesday. In particular, AIPAC congratulates Sen. Harry Reid (D-NV), Reps. John Boehner (R-OH), Nancy Pelosi (D-CA), Eric Cantor (R-VA) and Steny Hoyer (D-MD).

AIPAC extends its best wishes to those members who served with great distinction during their careers in Congress.

We also welcome the election of two new Jewish members of Congress: Senator-elect Richard Blumenthal (D-CT) and Congressman-elect David Cicilline (D-RI).

###